

My day

What do you do in the morning? Eat breakfast, clean your teeth, do your homework, ... do you do it in the same order every day? Having a routine can help you feel calm and in control. If you know what is coming next and have a plan for each day, it can help you worry less. If you don't have a routine right now, you could create one.

Can you draw your routine as a comic strip?

